

City Pride Magazine News Show

Cheryl "CMoney" Green City Pride Magazine

Talk Show Host

Magazine Presents New TV Talk Show

Cheryl "Cmoney" Green questioned Angelo on how he got his name Barefoot Pookie and what happened in his life to turn him around to God. Angelo talked about his street experience and the different gangs that he started all over Los Angeles and he talked about his time in prison that woke him up and led him to Christ. Angelo "Barefoot Pookie" will tell his life in his upcoming book called "Crips to Christ".

Cheryl also asked Angelo about the work he is doing now and Angelo spoke on his work as a member of the City of Truth Ministries and how he is working with youth as a mentor and Gang Intervention Specialist. Angelo says he works with the Cease Fire Coalition, Cry No More, all in the Same Gang and many other community organizations design to stop young people from being involved in gangs and creating safe passage as these young people go from one hood to the next.

This was a very good talk show and viewers were able to get some valuable information about what is happening out in the community to combat gang violence. For more information please contact City Pride Magazine at 310 532-5631.

City Pride Magazine aired its first television talk show on the Los Angeles Time Warner Cable Station. The City Pride Magazine was hosted by the lovely Cheryl "Cmoney" Green and the guest was Angelo " Barefoot Pookie" White" The show aired in Los Angeles on July 15, 2008 on Channel 24 and was produced by City Pride Magazine, Founder and Editor, Charles Jackson Jr.

The lovely Cheryl Green hosted this great show and she displayed her talent as a delightful and engaging interviewer. Her bright smile and charming speech captivated the audience and put the guest very much at ease. Cheryl comes with a Radio and TV Communications background along with her "God given" gift to minister to a large audience. God is first in her life and her ambition is to be a servant to the Lord and minister to His people.

The guest for this first show was Angelo "Barefoot Pookie" White. Angelo is known for his part in starting the Crip street gang. This is one of the biggest and most vicious gangs to ever be born on this side of hell. But the reason for Angelo being on the show was because of his work to stop the gang and initiate peace in the streets.

Angelo talked about his part in creating the Crips not to glorify the gangs but to show one man's life experience and how God has made a change in his life.

